Architecture/Interior Design/Art

The rooms furniture is white as all the hotel: the bathroom and bedroom floor are listless of white ceramic from Vietri, the furniture and the bed header are made by Sorrento artisans, the lamps are from Philippe Stark, and also the metal and plastic armchairs while the comfortable armchairs of the balconies are from Hugonet, Paris. The sofas in the common areas are by Gervasoni. The bathroom furniture are Duravit by Philippe Stark. The bath tub of the Junior Suite, also by Philippe Stark, recalls the old large tubs and has also a large walk in shower. The courtesy set is from L'Occitane.

The owner, Antonino Cappiello, together with the interior design, Marco De Luca and the architects, Francesco Savarese and Gennaro Fusco developed the project of combining the minimalist design with the colours and forms of the contemporary art.

Against the tranquil beauty of the Mediterranean Sea, guests can enjoy a range of Casa Angelina's contemporary art spread across the hotel's public spaces.

The glass pieces, Venetian specialties crafted on the island of Murano, playfully adorn the property as do bronze sculptures and original oil paintings. The works are by Sosabravo, Tim Cotterill, Sergio Bustamante and Valencia.
